to WELS ministries*

2022

LETTER FROM THE DIRECTOR

Dear Friend in Christ,

It's no secret that the investment markets have been very unpredictable in the past year, as they continue to fluctuate based on current events.

Are we worried? No. God is in control. The markets may change, our situations may change, but our God never changes. He "is the same yesterday and today and forever" (Hebrews 13:8) and "does not change like shifting shadows" (James 1:17). He also keeps his promises: "Take heart! I have overcome the world" (John 16:33). Praise God for his constancy in this world of shifting shadows!

Despite the uncertainty of the last year, God is blessing us. One of those blessings is the oversight provided by our board of directors. The board is made up of WELS members with relevant experience from throughout the synod (see p. 7). On p. 5, you will read about why one congregation is looking to WELS Investment Funds to support its ministry.

We pray that God will continue to use WELS Investment Funds to be a blessing to gospel work throughout our synod. To him be all glory!

Mr. James Holm, CFP®

Executive Director, WELS Investment Funds

WHAT ARE THE BENEFITS OF WELS MINISTRIES INVESTING THROUGH WELS INVESTMENT FUNDS?

- WELS Investment Funds was incorporated as a support services subsidiary of WELS in 1997. As of June 30, 2022, it managed $270 million for more than 245 WELS and affiliated ministries, including WELS Foundation, Martin Luther College, Wisconsin Lutheran Seminary, Luther Preparatory School, Michigan Lutheran Seminary, WELS Home and World Missions, several area Lutheran high schools, and more than 200 congregations.
- WELS Investment Funds provides cost-effective, professionally managed investment portfolios exclusively for WELS and affiliated ministries. By pooling our God-given talents and resources, we can take advantage of lower-cost, institutionally priced investment opportunities that are not available to smaller investment accounts. As more congregations and organizations invest in WELS Investment Funds, the cost-reduction benefits increase. It's a way we can support each other.
- WELS Investment Funds is easy to use. Executive Director Jim Holm, an employee of WELS, can meet with your organization (in person or via phone or video) to discuss the various investment options available through WELS. Our investor services specialist, Monica Peavy, is also available to guide you through the steps to open and maintain an investment account.

WHO CAN INVEST IN THE WELS FUNDS?

Any 501(c)(3) organization that is a WELS or Evangelical Lutheran Synod (ELS) ministry or a ministry in fellowship with WELS can invest in WELS Funds. This includes any ministry listed in the WELS Yearbook or otherwise approved by the WELS Conference of Presidents.

Individuals may not invest in WELS Funds, nor can organizations located in the following states: Connecticut, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Tennessee, or Virginia.

HOW ARE THE FUNDS MANAGED?

The WELS Investment Funds Board of Directors has retained Vanguard Institutional Advisory Services® as its investment consultant.

Vanguard serves as a co-fiduciary along with the board. This benefits the ministries that invest in the WELS Funds in several ways:

- Vanguard is a leader in providing institutions with diversified investment strategies using world-class active and passive investment strategies.
- Vanguard is owned by its mutual fund investors, resulting in low investment fees—leaving more returns for WELS investors.
- Our Vanguard senior investment consultant, William Burns, CFA, works exclusively with nonprofits. He regularly meets with our board of directors to review portfolio performance and provide Vanguard's market and economic outlook.

WHY WELS INVESTMENT FUNDS?

When Grace, Yorba Linda, Calif., received a generous gift from one of its members, Grace's leadership wanted to explore different options for investing that gift. Their goal was to find something that benefited their mission and honored the wishes of the donor. "As a member of WELS, it only made sense to check out WELS Investment Funds," says Pastor Phillip Sievert.

Sievert and Grace's church council met via video with Executive Director Jim Holm to discuss their investment options. Sievert was grateful for the meeting and the direction it provided: "It gave our council confidence in WELS Investment Funds and a sense of relief knowing that we can leave the gift in good hands without having to worry about constant decision-making," he says. "What I was really pleased with is the mission-mindedness that came out of our discussion."

Sievert concludes, "WELS Investment Funds uses their time and talents and expertise in making the most of our congregation's gifts and investments. This frees us up to focus on what Jesus has called us to do, to 'go and make disciples of all nations.'"

OTHER WELS SUBSIDIARIES

WELS Church Extension Fund (WELS CEF) exists to provide financing for mission-minded endeavors and projects that are under the direction of WELS Board for Home Missions. WELS CEF provides loans and grants to qualified mission congregations so they can acquire land and build or renovate ministry facilities—used as tools for gospel outreach. The money WELS CEF uses to provide loans and grants comes from two sources—investments and gifts. For more information, visit wels.net/cef.

WELS Foundation has been helping God’s people support the ministries they love since 1965. WELS Foundation provides a channel through which gifts can be administered for the benefit of local and national ministries by:

- Providing knowledgeable planned giving support to WELS Christian giving counselors (800-827-5482) and other WELS mission advancement representatives.
- Facilitating various giving opportunities, including charitable gift annuities, charitable remainder trusts, donor-advised funds, and endowment administration.
